DRAFT

2024 Voter Contact Timeline and Plan (Draft for Review)

Timeline

November 2024: Joe Biden and Marie Gluesenkamp Perez Win! All our Democratic candidates win!

August – November 2024: The LDs and the Clark County Democrats are supplying campaigns with large numbers of well-trained volunteers for doorbelling, phone calling, and other voter contact

June – July 2024: Doorbelling training and phone calling training is held and every PCO and all willing volunteers attend and get trained up, so they are highly valuable to the 2024 candidates when asked to doorbell or phone call.

February – August 2024: Every PCO and every willing volunteer is contacting 10 infrequently voting Democrats regularly and developing a strong personal relationship with those 10 people in their neighborhood, to encourage them to vote.

February 2024: The leads for the voter contact effort continue to text and call PCOs and volunteers to help them be successful contacting their 10 voters.

February 2024: To help us stay organized and on track, the Clark County Democrats Executive Committee, including the LD Chairs, considers and discusses—and hopefully adopts—this addendum to the State PCO Handbook, which would then be considered for adoption at the next General Meeting. This must be done in full consultation with the Legislative Districts who lead so much of this crucially important work.

Proposed Clark County Addendum to the State PCO Handbook (Draft for Review—this would need discussion and consideration by each LD and CCD since it would include commitments for LDs as well as the CCD)

Your involvement is important to us to win more votes for Democrats. Thank you to all our dedicated PCOs and volunteers! This is intended as a positive approach to lend clarity to volunteers about what is expected and to help us win more votes for Democrats, one voter at a time. Any PCO who does not plan to complete these items, because they desire to do other specific work to help the party instead of these tasks, may seek and receive an exception from their LD Chair.

To support our PCOs and volunteers and to work toward victory in an organized way, every PCO in Clark County is expected to reliably complete the following minimum expectations. Every new PCO recruited will indicate whether they agree to these minimum requirements when seeking confirmation at the Clark County Democrats General Meetings. This is intended to be a positive policy and PCOs may not be removed or otherwise disciplined for failing to do so. The scope of this policy is only to make clear what our organizations expect of PCOs, at a bare minimum, to help win more votes for Democrats. PCOs may always do more and should consult the state PCO Handbook for ideas on things they can do in addition to these minimum expectations.

Minimum Expectations for Clark County PCOs

1. Develop and maintain a strong personal relationship with 10 infrequently voting Democrats in their neighborhood, to encourage them to become regular and reliable voters. This is our most basic work to increase base turnout in Clark County. Instructions, voter lists, and support are available from the Clark County Democrats.
2. Attend training on doorbelling, phone calling, and other voter contact techniques.
3. Reliably show up and doorbell, make phone calls, and use other voter contact techniques upon request from Democratic candidates' campaigns or local Democratic organizations. This provides a team of well-trained volunteers to our candidates to help them win their campaigns!
4. BONUS: The three items above are simply crucial for Democratic success. Please focus on accomplishing them. Once you have done so and you are ready to accomplish even more, then please canvass or telephone your precinct in coordination with election strategy at least once a year, and recruit friends and allies in your neighborhood to help you split up this work and accomplish it. These friends and allies are your "Precinct Committee," which is where the title "Precinct Committee Officer" comes from. Having a few friends help you organize your neighborhood makes it more fun and more helpful for achieving Democratic victories!

PCOs can expect support from the Legislative Districts (LDs) and Clark County Democrats to have success in this work. Every LD and County meeting (general and executive committee) will include a progress check-in on this work on the agenda, to keep it top-of mind for all our organizations.

This is intended as a positive approach to lend clarity to volunteers about what is expected and to help us win more votes for Democrats, one voter at a time. Thank you to our dedicated PCOs and volunteers!
